Terms and Conditions of the 2017 Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS ("DG") CAREFULLY, AS THEY WILL GOVERN THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF YOUR ENTRY APPLICATION AND OF YOUR EVENTUAL ADMISSION AND PARTICIPATION IN THE 2017 COPPA D'ORO DELLE DOLOMITI. BY ACCEPTING THE DG BELOW, YOU ARE RECOGNIZING AND ACCEPTING THE FACT THAT YOU WILL BE GOVERNED BY THEM.

IF YOU DO NOT AGREE WITH AND ACCEPT THE STATED TERMS AND CONDITIONS, PLEASE CLICK ON THE "I DO NOT ACCEPT" BUTTON SHOWN ON YOUR SCREEN. IN THIS CASE, YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO ACCESS THE ENTRY FORM FOR THE EVENT.

Art. 1 – Preliminary versus finalized programmes: preliminary programmes are those still being refined in terms of routing and locations, and/or in terms of the structures that will be used. Meet Comunicazione s.r.l. organising the regularity event, the Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti, a concessionaire of the Automobile Club Belluno, (hereafter referred to as "The Organization"), hereby affirms that it will maintain the services and structures shown in the finalized programme. However, in the unlikely event of services becoming unavailable due to circumstances beyond its control, it reserves the right to substitute them with services and/or structures of equal quality.

Art. 2 – Classic Regularity Event for Historic Cars: the measurement will be as follows:

- Time measurement to the entire minute for time controls (CO), with penalties for each minute or fraction of early or late arrival;
- Time measurement up to a hundredth of a second, with penalties for early or late arrival;
- Time measurement will be done by use of pneumatic tube pressure switches, which must have print-out equipment. The terms of reference regarding regulations will be the C.S.A.I. Regulations.

Art. 3 – Cars Admitted to the 2017 Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti: participation in the Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti is limited to cars built between 1919 and 1961. Will be eligible to participate, a maximum of 30 cars built between 1962 and 1965 of particular historical or significant racing history, in possession of one of the documentations requested. Those cars will not be included in the overall placing but in a special one. The maximum number of cars allowed is 180. As requests for pre-registration are normally much higher, a strict criterion of rotation of models will be applied, with precedence given as follows:

- Cars which took part in any of the original Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti (1947-1956);
- Cars with a significant competitive background;
- Year of construction of the first model of the car;
- Exclusivity and rarity of the model;
- Cars belonging to "barchetta" category designed and build in the respective periods of classification, for use mainly sports / racing, with only two seats, without any possibility of being covered or even just covered laterally.

Art. 4 – Admission to the 2017 Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti and Eventual Complaints: the Selection Committee is the sole authority deciding who may take part. Its decisions are final. This means that no protests as to refuse entries will be taken into consideration.

Art. 5 – Entry Fee: The entry fee of € 2.950,00 (VAT included) – includes the following:

5.1.a The complete hospitality package for 2 people from 2 p.m. of July the 20th to 2 p.m. of July the 23rd:

- Three nights in a 4/5 stars Hotel in a double room
- Three lunches
- Three dinners.

5.1.b The kit for entrants:

- The road book
- The sticker for the car and race numbers
- The necessary passes
- Exclusive gifts, reserved for Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti entrants only
- The catalogue.

5.1.c Services and assistance included:

- Coordination on the part of our staff the length of the route
- A shuttle service wherever indicated, provided by the organization.

Art. 6 – Optional extras:

- Option of single hotel room (a supplement applies)
- Option of extra stay in the hotel before the event from Wednesday, July the 19th or after, until Monday, July the 24th
- Option of having a support crew or an accompanying car crew
- Option of having extra guests to the Gala dinners
- Option of purchasing extra Road book or sticker
- Option of parking your transporter truck and/or other support vehicles, with or without trailers.

Art. 7 – Entry Applications: would-be entrants must register on line on the website, acquiring a login identity and a password. Once these have been obtained, they must then fill in the online entry form. This will then give them an entry registration number. The cars of competitors who have not paid the entry fee will not be included in the list of possible participant to the race. If your car was not accepted, it may still have been placed on the waiting list of cars for the event, to substitute any renunciations or cancellations before the event starts. If the car has not been accepted, the entry fee (minus bank handling fees) will be returned by wire transfer to the bank account shown on your entry registration form or credited on your credit card.

The act of filling in the form for the 2017 Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti automatically makes you subject to abiding with the present Terms and Conditions.

It will be necessary to attach online the following:

- First page of ACI/Csai or FIA or FIVA or AAVS certificates required
- A Photograph of the car.

Please check the website for information regarding the status of your entry application.

Art. 8 – Objections to the Entry Fee: the Organization must place personnel along the route, give financial pledges to suppliers of services, sustain publicity costs to make the event known to the public, print and distribute programmes; these along with many other costs that cannot be detailed here, make up the final entry fee. Thus, under no circumstance whatsoever and at no time will the Organization take into consideration any disputes regarding renegotiation of entry fees. The fee reflects the quality, quantity, type of service and assistance on offer at the time of registration, and will not be renegotiable or refundable even in part after the event is over.

Art. 9 – Renunciation: partial or total renunciation of participation in the event must be given in writing by the entrant, by means of a registered letter, to the company's address in Piazzale Flaminio, 19 – 00196 Rome (Italy). This must be received on or by June the 19th, 2017 in order to have your fee reimbursed. No reimbursement will be given to entrants who do not show up at the starting line or who withdraw during the course of the event. No fees will be reimbursed if an entrant cannot take part in the event due to invalid or insufficient personal, travel, or car documents. No substitution of competitors is allowed after online entry applications have closed. Only one member of the crew of a competing car may be substituted, and this only once up until the start of the administrative checks in Cortina. Accompanying cars and support vehicles may change members of the crew as long as this has been communicated to the Organization within a reasonable amount of time and as long as there are no reasons to oppose this change or other problems associated with this change.

Art. 10 – Acts of God – natural disasters - strikes - bad weather conditions - civil or military disorders – act of terrorism: these will be considered acts of “forza maggiore” and the Organization will be held blameless for the above or similar. In the event of any acts of “forza maggiore”, the Organization will be released from any obligation to provide the services stipulated if it is no longer possible to provide these services and entrants and/or crews will waive the right to any reimbursement, compensation or indemnity with regards to the total amount paid by the entrant if the Organization has to use the sum to cover the costs of organizing the event. The only possible exception to this would be in the case of damages covered by the insurance policy regarding the 2017 Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti, set up by the Organization.

Art. 11 – Protection of Privacy Law Concerning the Protection of the Confidential Nature of Personal Data: in accordance with Italian law n° 196/03 protecting the confidential nature of personal data, the name of each participant is inserted into a database whose sole proprietor is Meet Comunicazione s.r.l. In accordance with Art. 7, law 196/03, entrants, clients, or whoever is in the database, can access their information at any time, modify it, or cancel it. If they wish to oppose any usage of their personal data, they can do so by sending a registered letter to Meet Comunicazione s.r.l., Piazzale Flaminio, 19 – 00196 Rome (Italy).

Art. 12 – Additional and/or Informative Communication Bulletins: The Organization reserves the right to make known to all participants, by means of the above bulletins, any

Some of the services offered on this website may include links to third party websites. You have been informed and accept that Meet Comunicazione s.r.l. cannot be held responsible for the examination or for the evaluation of the content or of the accuracy of this material or of the third party websites. Meet Comunicazione s.r.l. cannot guarantee or confirm or have any responsibility for the material or websites of third parties, nor for other material, products or services of third parties. The links are there for your convenience. You must accept that you will not use material from these third parties in any way that can infringe or violate their rights, and that Meet Comunicazione s.r.l. will not be held in any way responsible for any use in this sense on your part.

Art. 14 – Authorization to take photos / to film: release and indemnity: entrants authorise Meet Comunicazione s.r.l. and/or third parties authorised by Meet Comunicazione s.r.l. to take photos and/or shoot audiovisual works (hereafter referred to as "Content") of their persons, members of their crews and/or their vehicles and/or personal possessions and/or items of any brands that they own during and in the context of the 2017 Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti (hereafter referred to as "the Event"). Entrants agree to surrender to the Organization, at no charge whatsoever, unlimited rights to the Content that Meet Comunicazione s.r.l. takes or films during the Event. The surrendering of rights gives Meet Comunicazione s.r.l. the right to store, use for commercial purposes, to distribute the Content to third parties, and to divulge it, in full or partially, with no time limits, also after editing, by means of the press (including but not limited to catalogues, magazines, books, etc) and/or any system of storage and/or broadcasting known at present or to be invented in the future (including but not limited to TV, radio, internet, telecommunications, on or offline analogical and/or digital systems, etc), with no territorial or easement limits, for all time. Entrants indemnify and hold harmless the Organization and/or owners of specific rights against third party claims pertaining to the right to utilise the aforementioned Content.

Art. 15 – Insurance and indemnity: in accordance with Article 124 of the Private Insurance Code (D.Lgs. 209/2005), the Organization has drawn up a civil liability insurance policy for races and competitions, which also covers third party liability for the Organization and any bound persons for damage to persons, animals and objects excluding injury to entrants themselves and their cars. Entrants agree to obtain insurance in conformity with current law and agree to release the Automobile Club d'Italia (Italian Automobile Club), the CSAI, the Organization and any of their staff or collaborators involved in the Event, race marshals and owners of land and property through which the Event passes, from any responsibility for damage or injury to themselves, their drivers, co-drivers, employees and objects, or damage or
